

GLOBAL EXAMPLES OF FORBIDDEN BOOKS

For the artwork The Parthenon of Books, part of documenta 14 in Kassel, the artist Marta Minujín and documenta 14 are collecting up to 100.000 books which have been re-published after being banned for years as well as those that are distributed legally in some countries but not in others. The following list of currently or formerly prohibited books, many of which are considered among the classics of world literature today, illustrates the global scope of censorship. The donated books do not necessarily need to be original editions from the time of their respective prohibitions. documenta 14 welcomes donations of new editions, original editions, as well as several copies of the same title.
